UFS Affirms U. Chicago Campus Freedom of Expression Principles

April 20, 2016 | University Life

Resolution Affirming the University of Chicago Report on Freedom of Expression on Campus

Recitals

1. The University Faculty Senate has long advocated for academic freedom.
2. Freedom of expression on college campuses has become a contested national issue.
3. The Report of the University of Chicago's Committee on Freedom of Expression ^{PDF} (January 2015) is a balanced approach to this issue.

Resolution

The University Faculty Senate subscribes to the principles in the University of Chicago statement.

Proponent: Executive Committee

The University Faculty Senate adopted this resolution without dissent at its March 29, 2016, plenary.
